HONGKONG, FRIDAY, MAY 4, 1894. THE appeal to the House of Common for such a re-construction of the Legislative Council of this Colony as would secure the election of a majority of Unofficial Members is one which will probably give some trouble to the Secretary of State. The mere fact that some of the Unofficial Members themselves are opposed to the petition sppears, on the face of it, to be sufficient eason for the rejection of the petition by the House; and if, ultimately, the matter is referred to the Secretary of State, there can be little doubt as to what his decision would be. There are but few residents (if there are any at all) who would venture to say that no Per Per reform in the system of Government is necessary. The only question is in what way the reform is to be effected-i.e. to what extent the reform should go, and how it is to be brought about. It has always seemed to us that the simplest method of meeting the demand for reform would be to sanction the appointment of a majority of Unofficial Members for the Liegislative Council. This would, of course, entirely upset the present constitution of the Council, but it does not necessarily follow that it would imply any denger, or even any disadvantage, to the colony. A Legislative Council with a majority of Unofficial Members does not seem to have proved a failure in any of the other Crown Colonies of Great Britain, and there is absolutely nothing to show why a Legislative body constituted on the same principle should turn out to be a failure here. The Secretary of State would still continue to exercise his despotic power with regard to suything that the Council might do. The interests of the Empire could in no way be imperilled by the vote of an Unofficial majority in the Legislative Council of Hongkong. What we may call the casting vote would remain with the Secretary of State, and that is the vote which settles every question that can possibly arise, affecting either. Imperial or local interests. The only tangible bjection would be the delay caused by a reference to Downing Street; and, this would sometimes be an advantage. The Secretary of State may be presumed to have knowledge of everything in colonial legislation which relates to the interests of the Empire: but it cannot be taken for granted that he should be able to naderstand and decide on questions, which are purely municipal In deciding questions of the letter class he cannot rely on the savice of the official body in the Legislative Council, because from the official side he can only obtain what is practically the opinion of only one man. The officials; whatever their private opinions may be invariably vote un the Government side, because they cannot do otherwise. If the Governor of the Our lowest priced Whisky is of excellent | colony happened to take a view with quality and of greater age than most brands respect to any question which every in the market. WE believe that a Chess Club has been formed, and that there is every likelihood of a championship competition taking place during the summer months. A meeting will be held in the rooms of Mr H. E. Pollock, 18 Bank Buildings, at 5.15 p.m. on Tuesday, 15th inst., at which the preliminarisa for the contest will be arranged. Al chess-players, whether or not they intend taking an active part in the tournament, are requested to attend this meeting. There are many chest-players in the Colony, and it is desirable that all may find it convenient to become members of the newly-formed club. A chess club has been one of the wants of the Colony for some years. The present attempt to organize chessplayers should, therefore, receive ready

THE PETITION TO THE HOUSE OF COMMONS. To the Editor of the OHINA MAIL

Hongkong, May 3rd. SIR,-As one who can look back on the past history of this Colony for a period of more than 25 years. I have read with deep interest the above able petition which gives expression to the opinion of a steady and prosperous community, showing itself year by year, more able to grasp the problem of self-government with justice and enlightenment. In this connection I cannot but pay my tribute of respect to the Hon. Member representing the Chamber of Commerce on the eve of his departure for I can truthfully assert his services to the Colony in the Legislative Council have has he flinched in his determination to get to the bottom of abuses, and press forward progressive legislation often in the face of comtemptible and galling rebuffs, that would have discouraged most men.

But in the granting of this petition foresee a danger of a grave nature. Let me suppose a repstition of the danger the Colony passed through some three years ago when, through the question- the famous African explorer, has been able actions of a weak Governor, a number severely criticised in many respects by of residents of alien race virtually controlled other explorers of that still very mysterious if they wished, for personal motives, to mark, a Swede, who claims to have made abandon some great public work?-they two explorations of the Congo State under would simply combine and strive every the anspices of King Leopold II of Beland the wellare of the Colony would be on human flesh to satisfy a morbid curiotheir last consideration.

ENGLISH SHIP PLANS. Washington, April 8.—Referring to the attacks made on Americans in the London Engineer, as cabled from London yesterday and to the accusation that British plans of men of war have been stolen by Americans in the pay of our Navy Department, naval officers here say that such statements are not worth noticing, for the reason that English officials are constantly attacking the integrity of Americans as to the alleged theft of British secrets, without ever giving such definite particulars as to bring forth a complete and convincing refutation.

Madrid, April 8. - The Governor-General of Cuba has sent to Senor Berierra, Minister of the Colonies, details of the frustration by the Government of Cuba of a revolutionary conspiracy. The leader of leuted 2000 rifles, intended for the use of insurgents in Cuba. Gomez was directive the movements of the conspirators from San Domingo and was closely watched by the Spanish Consul there. On April 4th Gumez sailed for New York and all the known facts were communicated to the Governor-General. The military authorities were advised of the plot and a watch was kept to prevent the landing of arms or ammunition.

It was learned that a quantity of arms and other contraband munitions of war had been shipped from New York on the steamer Alerta by General Martia, the wellknown insurgent leader. These arms were passed through the Custom-house Neuvitas and were being taken into the interior. The military followed the train bearing the smuggled arms, and came upon them at Porto Principe, thirty-six miles north of Neuvites. A raid was made on the train and 200- Remington rifles and 40,000 cartridges were a ized. The customs emplayes suspected of having been bribed to permit the landing of the contraband munitions of war have been suspended, and strict investigation will be made.

The Minister of the Colonies has sent dispatch to the Governor-General, praising him for his action and ordering that he deal in the strictest manner with the customs and railway officials implicated. BEHRING SEL MEGOTIATIONS.

THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY,

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of. ' Notes and Queries on China and Japan, has reached its Twenty-first Volume. The Review discusses these topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the Far East' and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new departure has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of Literature on China etc., and to give critiques embodying sketches of the Most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to Editor, China Review, care of China

Mail Office. The Notes and Queries are still continued and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knew-

*ledge on obscure points. The Correspondents' column also affords farther and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Imperial Customs, and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Eitel, Bretichnelder, and Hirth, Professor Legge, and Messrs Balfour, Watters, Stent, Phillips, MacIntyre, Groot, Jamieson, Faber, Kopsch, Parker, Playfair, Giles, Piton, and Taylor,—all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject.

The Subscription is fixed at $6.50 per annum, postage included - payable in ad-

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review.'-Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.) ... The China Review * * * * has an excellent table of contents.'-Celestial Empire. 'The Publication always contains subjects of interest to sojourners in the Far East and the present issue will hold favourable if not numbers.'-Celestial Empire.

This number contains several articles of interest and value.'-- North-China Herald. . The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard of excellence which characterises that publiand altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. Meteorologists will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Fritsche, on "the Amount of Precipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Peking, from 1841 to 1880. "Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of "The Divine Classic of Nan-Hus," and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting. - North-China

Daily News.

'A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronise. "-Chrysunthemum. 'The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr Herbert A. Giles on "The New Testament in Chinese" treats of a question that must necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries. Mr E. H. Parker's "Short Journeys in Section" are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr F. H. Balfour contributes a paper of some length entitled "The Emperor Cheng, founder of the Chinese Empire," which will be read with genuine nterest by students of Chinese history. A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which and Java" might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number. - H.K. Daily Press.

following notice of the China Review:-The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to neighbouring countries, some what similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of at tention that has been bestowed of late year. upon the investigation of Chinese literature antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of inform ation, rendering some such channel of pul Heity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interes may fairly be looked or from the member of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary bod among whom a high degree of Chine scholarship is now assiduously cultivated number of the Review by papers highlereditable to their respective authors.

Bome translations from Chinese novels and Bome translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and fresh ness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese post-statesman of the eleventh century. Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. R. C. Bowrs is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice the Notes and Queries are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contribution on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary seal to that which we displayed during the lifetime of its predefinations. displayed during the lifetime of its predemay receive the support necessary to insure
